

National Communications Authority

- Press Release

NCA WELCOMES 2018/2019 NATIONAL SERVICE PERSONNEL

The National Communications Authority (NCA) on 10th September, 2018, held a welcome orientation for 121 National Service Personnel (NSP) of the 2018/2019 service year at the NCA Tower in Accra. The orientation also marked the official launch of a 3-week Boot Camp for the personnel.

Speaking to the NSP, Mr. Charles Amoah-Wilson, Acting Head for Human Resource, deemed it a pleasure for the 2018/2019 batch to join the Authority. He made reference to the previous year's official opening which was graced by Vice President of the Republic of Ghana and other dignitaries.

Touching briefly on the National Service programme and its objectives, Mr. Amoah-Wilson said the programme is a compulsory one-year service required of all citizens of Ghana, who successfully complete their tertiary education; to deploy their energies by offering some service to organizations and communities in any part of the country. He continued that the NCA, therefore, has accepted graduates from thirty-three (33) tertiary institutions across the country for the 2018/2019 service year who will be posted to the various Divisions of the Authority.

- Mr. Charles Amoah-Wilson addressing the National Service Personnel

Addressing the Personnel on behalf of the Director General, the Deputy Director General for Operations, Mr. Prince Ofosu-Sefah said that although education is important, much attention should be paid to acquiring practical skills and developing oneself into an all-rounder. He urged them to read more to expand their horizons, train their minds to be optimistic and work towards achieving and giving their best to the development of the Authority during the one year of service.

- Mr. Prince Ofosu-Sefah giving his welcome address

Mr. Joseph Boateng, Ms. Ruby Quartey and Ms. Yvonne Ahiable who spoke on behalf of the Personnel said they were appreciative of the opportunity given them by the Authority to serve and also acquire practical skills to the theoretical knowledge they acquired in school. They also expressed their determination to serve the Authority to the best of their ability.

- National Service Personnel in a group photograph with Management of NCA

Issued by the National Communications Authority,

No. 6 Airport City, Accra.

Tel: (0)30 – 2776621/2771701 or 050-145-1522/3.

E-mail: info@nca.org.gh

Date – Monday, 10th September, 2018