

National Communications Authority

- Press Release

NEW DEPUTY DIRECTOR GENERAL APPOINTED FOR NCA

For Immediate Release

Accra, 1st August, 2018 – The National Communications Authority (NCA) has welcomed a new Deputy Director General, Managerial Operations in the person of Madam Olivia Okailey Quarthey.

A graduate of the University of Ghana, Legon and Mountcrest College, Ms. Quarthey is also a bi-lingual secretary with professional qualifications in French from the Alliance Francaise D'Accra and is currently undertaking a post-graduate course.

Ms. Quarthey has over 20 years working experience with stints from the National Health Insurance Authority, Hadna Trust and General Leasing & Finance Company Limited (now Access Bank), working in various areas including Business Development, Payments and Office Management.

Prior to her appointment as the Deputy Director General, Managerial Operations, she was working at Bui Power Authority responsible for Business Development. She is also a Board Member of the Ghana Publishing Corporation.

Ms. Olivia Quarthey will join two other Deputy Directors General to assist the Director General to provide strategic leadership and direction for effective regulation of the communications sector in line with established corporate governance processes.

The NCA is pleased to welcome her and looks forward to working with her.

Issued by the National Communications Authority

No. 6 Airport City, Accra

Tel: (0)30 – 2776621/2771701 or 050-145-1522/3

E-mail: info@nca.org.gh

Date – Monday, 1st August, 2018