

National Communications Authority

- Press Release

NCA MENTORS GIRLS-IN-ICT PARTICIPANTS

Accra, 11th August 2023: The National Communications Authority (NCA) hosted one hundred (100) selected participants from various regions of the 2023 National Girls-In-ICT Initiative at the NCA Tower in Accra.

This was part of an Open Day activity organised by the Ministry of Communications and Digitalisation (MoCD) to provide the opportunity for the selected girls to acquire knowledge, in the field of ICT of Information and Communications Technology (ICT).

Director of Consumer and Corporate Affairs at the NCA,
Mrs. Nana Defie Badu welcoming the girls at the NCA Tower

Welcoming the girls on behalf of the Director General of the NCA, Mr. Joe Anokye, the Director for Consumer and Corporate Affairs Division, Mrs. Nana Defie Badu applauded the MOCD for empowering the girls to become leaders in society. She said that the initiative gives the girls the opportunity to have a good understanding of the ICT field to inform their career decisions.

The girls singing some patriotic songs

Some female staff of the NCA served as a source of inspiration, motivating them to pursue diverse roles in ICT, not only within Ghana but also at the global level. The 100 girls selected from the Bono, Bono East, and Ahafo Regions, were presented with souvenirs to aid in their studies.

A group photograph of the girls with their souvenirs

Female staff of the NCA inspiring the girls to go higher

Issued by the National Communications Authority:

No. 6 Airport City, Accra

Tel: (0)30 – 2776621/2771701 or 050-145-1522/3

E-mail: info@nca.org.gh

Date: 11th August, 2023

About NCA

The National Communications Authority, (NCA), was established by an Act of Parliament, Act 524 in December 1996, which has been repealed and replaced by the National Communications Authority Act, 2008 (Act 769). The Authority is the statutory body mandated to license and to regulate electronic communication activities and services in the country.